SUCCESS INDICATORS:

ALU's provision of data to the public is guided by entities such as the Distance Education Accrediting Commission, the State Bar of California and the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education. To help the public understand our programs better, additional information is presented on this form.

Completion/Graduation Rate for ALL programs/courses:

All University program completion/graduation rates are posted in BPPE Performance Fact Sheets.

For the Juris Doctor degree, the state of California mandates that ALU as a non-ABA-accredited law school registered with the State Bar of California in the unaccredited distance learning category must publish a Business & Professions Code Section 6061.7(a) Information Report on ALU's website (see URL below). In addition, ALU must post bar exam passage rates for the online Juris Doctor program.

The mentioned disclosures above, while not included in this sheet, are accessible at: <https://www.alu.edu/alu-admissions/consumer-information/>. You may visit ALU's website or call 213-252-5100 for further information.

Student Satisfaction Statistics:

In 2017, ALU collected the following results (what is provided below is the available data from that cycle; no data is available for other programs due to lack of responses from students in that program or no enrollments in that program).

For the Juris Doctor program: 11 students took the survey out of 120 students whom the survey was distributed to. 10 out of 11 students indicated they achieved or will achieve the goals that they had starting the course or program (90.9%), 8 out of 9 students indicated that they would recommend their studies to a friend (88.8%), and 9 out of 11 students indicated that all things considered, they were satisfied with their studies at ALU (81.8%).

For the Doctor of Business Administration program: 1 student took the survey out of 2 students whom the survey was distributed to (the DBA is a new program). That student selected responses indicating that the student achieved or will achieve the goals that the student had starting the course or program, that the student would recommend their studies to a friend, and that all things considered, the student was satisfied with their studies at ALU [100% positive].

For the Bachelor of Science in Legal Studies program: 2 students took the survey out of 7 students whom the survey was distributed to. Those two students selected responses indicating that they achieved or will achieve the goals that they had starting the course or program, that they would recommend their studies to a friend, and that all things considered, they were satisfied with their studies at ALU [100% positive].

For the Associate of Science in Business Administration program: 1 student took the survey out of 2 students whom the survey was distributed to (the DBA is a new program). That student selected responses indicating that the student achieved or will achieve the goals that the student had starting the course or program, that the student would recommend their studies to a friend, and that all things considered, the student was satisfied with their studies at ALU [100% positive].
