

ABRAHAM LINCOLN UNIVERSITY

PROFESSIONAL LICENSURE DISCLOSURE

Pursuant to 34 CFR §668.43(a)(5)(v) and 34 CFR §668.43(c), Abraham Lincoln University makes the following disclosures regarding its Juris Doctor program.

Completion of ALU's Juris Doctor program is sufficient to meet the legal education requirements in the state of California. Pursuant to Guideline 2.3(D)(1) to the Unaccredited Law School Rules:

The method of instruction at this law school for the Juris Doctor (J.D.) degree program is principally by technological means including interactive classes.

Students enrolled in the J.D. degree program at this law school who successfully complete the first year of law study must pass the First-Year Law Students' Examination required by Business and Professions Code § 6060(h) and Title 4, Division 1, Chapter 1 Rule 4.3(l) of the of the Rules of the State Bar of California as part of the requirements to qualify to take the California Bar Examination. A student who passes the First-Year Law Students' Examination within three (3) administrations of the examination after first becoming eligible to take it will receive credit for all legal studies completed to the time the examination is passed. A student who does not pass the examination within three (3) administrations of the examination after first becoming eligible to take it must be promptly disqualified from the law school's J.D. degree program. If the dismissed student subsequently passes the examination, the student is eligible for re-enrollment in this law school's J.D. degree program, but will receive credit for only one year of legal study.

Study at, or graduation from, this law school may not qualify a student to take the bar examination or to satisfy the requirements for admission to practice in jurisdictions other than California. A student intending to seek admission to practice law in a jurisdiction other than California should contact the admitting authority in that jurisdiction for information regarding the legal education requirements in that jurisdiction for admission to the practice of law.

Based on the Domestic Education chart from the NCBE Comprehensive Guide to Bar Admission Requirements, ALU has determined that its curriculum in the JD program satisfies the educational requirements for licensure in the following states, with the following caveats (students must still contact the admitting authority in that jurisdiction to be sure the NCBE information is still accurate since legislative and jurisdictional changes can occur mid-year):

- California
- Maine+
- Minnesota*+
- New Mexico*+
- Oregon*+
- Vermont+

+ This state allows graduates of online schools to sit for their bar exams, but they need to meet other requirements such as admission to practice law in another jurisdiction and/or a specific minimum number of years of practice.

* Due to state authorization restrictions, residents of this state cannot enroll at ALU.
